Host City Welcome...

To all NSFA Delegates, families and guests,

I am privileged, once again to welcome Nevada State Firefighters, guests and vendors to the 83rd Annual Nevada State Firefighter's Association Training Conference, hosted by our very own Ely Volunteer Fire Department.

The camaraderie of the firefighters participating in the training events and in the challenges, will make this conference a success. Leading the way for tomorrow, bringing the stories from the past and the new stories yet to unfold, to be told and heard at the next NSFA Training Conference.

The Ely Volunteer Fire Department Members have been working nonstop to bring you to one of the best training conferences to be held here in Ely. Wishing you all a great and memorable time during this year's conference!
